DESCRIPTION

A variant of the Simple model – a widely favored bench known for its modern yet classic contours. Model 02.024.1 varies slightly from its earlier version. The backrest is smaller, giving the bench a look akin to being the younger sibling of the 02.024 model. Despite these changes, its core structural features remain intact, including legs filled with black steel or stainless steel, spruce or pine wood, and, available by special order, various exotic woods. With its more compact dimensions and lighter weight, this bench is perfectly suited for contemporary office buildings, shopping centers, or open spaces in front of buildings. Like other models in the Simple series, it can be installed using screws or positioned as a standalone unit.
